Directions Regarding Nominating Petitions

1. Individuals who wish to have their name placed on the ballot for the upcoming election for district judicial nominating commissioner may obtain a blank petition from State Court Administration, the judicial branch website, or the website for the Judicial Nominating Commissions.

2. An individual who wishes to be a candidate is not required to be an attorney, but must be an "eligible elector" pursuant to Iowa law. Iowa Code §§ 46.10(1), 46.25, 39.3, and 48A.5.

3. Note that the petition is two pages. The individual who is seeking to have his/her name placed on the ballot should complete the top of the petition (including the judicial election district number) on the first page. Including a profession is optional, but it may help the voters identify and research candidates with whom they are not acquainted.

4. Collect the required ten original signatures as well as the full home addresses and signature dates for all individuals who sign the petition. Please ensure all information collected is legible (for verification purposes).

5. Complete the second page of the petition (the candidate's sworn statement) to confirm the validity of the candidate and the individuals for whom the signatures are being submitted.

6. Completed nominating petitions should be submitted to:

    State Court Administration
    1111 East Court Avenue
    Des Moines, IA 50319 or dist.nominating.commis@iowacourts.gov

    Personal delivery of completed petitions to the office of State Court Administration is only possible Mondays through Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

    All completed petitions and sworn statements must be received in the office of State Court Administration no later than December 27, 2021 in order to place a name on the ballot.

7. Individuals who do not submit completed petitions and whose names are not included on ballots may still receive votes during the voting period as a write-in candidate.
