RE: District Court Judges, Seventh Judicial District, Selects District Associate Judge

The District Court Judges of the Seventh Judicial District have selected Michael E. Motto as a District Associate Judge. The appointment is occasioned by the newly created district associate judge position in Scott County, Iowa, by order of the Supreme Court of Iowa.

Michael E. Motto of Davenport, Iowa, received his law degree from Chicago-Kent School of Law in 2006. He currently serves as a part time Magistrate Judge in Scott County and is also engaged in the private practice of law.

The Seventh Judicial District includes Cedar, Clinton, Jackson, Muscatine and Scott Counties.
